city.

At a meeting of citizens interested in a re-organization of the Eastern Michigan Agricultural Society, held at the Hawkins House yesterday, January 23, 1890, the following persons: William Campbell, Walter H. Hawkins, Josiah F. Sanders, Henry F. Horner, Robert W. Hemphill, C. L. Yost, and Clark S. Wortley, were appointed a committee to select permanent officers and make neccessary preperations leading to the formation of a new society and report at a subsequent meeting to be held at the same place February 6, at which meeting all persons interested in formation of a society to succeed the old Eastern Michigan are requested to attend.—Ypsilanti Commercial.

When the Saline Observer man called